SECTION 3

About the Program

LLM also known as Master of Laws has been derived from the name of the qualification in Latin called "Legum Magister". It is a worldwide recognised postgraduate degree in law that individuals only from a legal background can pursue. LLM is an appropriate course for students who want to expand their legal knowledge in a specific area of law.

A Master of Laws, or LLM, is a postgraduate degree in law. However, there are a number of educational institutions that offer a one-year LLM programme as well. Obtaining an LLM helps you to acquire an in-depth comprehension of a specific area of law by carrying out extensive substantial research in that area. International Law, Corporate Law, Business Law, and Criminal Law are just a few of the specialisations offered in Master of Laws degree programmes.
