Objective and outcome of course:

The primary objective of this paper is to answer the question how and why the present has evolved from the past in the manner it has. There is another reason which makes history so important. The way we perceive our past constructs our identity in the present and also builds our vision of the future. For this reason it is important to understand both historiography and historical methodology. History must encourage critical thinking to identify myths and stereotypes, and embedded meanings and discourses. History helps us to understand the socio, economic and political context in which legal system emerge and evolve.

The primary objective of this paper is to answer the question how and why the present has evolved from the past in the manner it has. The way we perceive our past constructs our identity in the present and also builds our vision of the future. For this reason it is important to understand both historiography and historical methodology. A study of the nature of the state and administrative apparatus is required for proper understanding of the legal systems in ancient and medieval India. The paper will offer a close study of select themes, focusing specifically on the intersections in history and law.
