Note 5: If there is any complaint of plagiarism against any member of Institutional Academic Integrity Panel, then such member shall excuse himself / herself from the meeting(s) where his/her case is being discussed/investigated.

5. Plagiarism Detection Software: As part of the 'Shodh Shuddhi' initiative by the Union Government, 'DrillBit-Extreme Plagiarism Detection Software' has been introduced from November 1, 2023, under the INFLIBNET project for detecting plagiarism in theses and thesis-related publications. However, research supervisors and the scholars are advised to check the theses and manuscripts using globally recognized plagiarism detection software such as Turnitin, iThenticate, etc., and submit the similarity report to avoid any untoward situation in future.

6. Role and Responsibilities of the Research Supervisor:

- i. Supervisors must educate research scholars about academic integrity, ethical writing practices, and the importance of avoiding plagiarism.
- ii. They should guide students to conduct self-checks of their theses, dissertations, or manuscripts using reliable plagiarism detection tools (e.g., Turnitin, iThenticate) before submission.
- iii. Supervisors must thoroughly review the similarity reports to identify any instances of unethical copying or improper citation, and guide students in revising the content accordingly.
- iv. It is the supervisor's responsibility to ensure that the final research work submitted is original, properly cited, and free from plagiarism.
- v. They should ensure that a valid plagiarism report is submitted along with the thesis or manuscript, and maintain records for institutional verification.
- vi. Supervisors must be well-versed with the guidelines prescribed by the RIMT university, UGC and other regulatory guidelines on plagiarism, and ensure compliance in all research outputs.
- vii. Beyond technical checks, supervisors play a crucial role in instilling a culture of honesty, responsibility, and respect for intellectual property among scholars.
