Professor (Dr.) Gurpreet Dhillon is aDistinguished academic and researcherholding the prestigious G. Brint Ryan Endowed Chair in AI & Cybersecurity at the University of North Texas (UNT) and an Honorary Professorship at ISEG (University of Lisbon), known for his extensive work on information security, risk management, and ethical AI, authoring numerous books and research papers, and contributing to national security policies, with a background including a PhD from the London School of Economics.

Key Roles & Affiliations:

- G. Brint Ryan Endowed Chair in Artificial Intelligence & Cybersecurity at the University of North Texas (UNT), USA.
- Honorary Professor at ISEG – University of Lisbon, Portugal, and other institutions like the University of KwaZulu-Natal.

Expertise & Research:

- Specializes in the intersection of technology and organizations, particularly information security, risk management, cybercrime, and ethical leadership in AI.
- A pioneer in recognizing the socio-technical aspects of information security.
- His work informs policies in public/private sectors and national security.

Education & Recognition:

- Holds a Ph.D. in Information Systems from the London School of Economics (LSE).
- Received an Honorary Doctorate from Örebro University, Sweden, in 2019.

Publications:

- Author of over a dozen books, including best-selling textbooks on cybersecurity.
- Publishes in leading journals, including FT50 journals.

Recent Activities:

- Speaks globally on AI, cybersecurity, and ethics, influencing business schools and technology adoption.
- Co-organizer of UNT's Cyber Security Awareness Month and the founding Co-Chair of UNT's cybersecurity initiatives.

Brief profile link: https://archive.threatcon.co.za/dhillon.html