

Brief Profile of Prof D P Goyal

Prof. D. P. Goyal is a distinguished academic leader, researcher, and author with over 38 years of rich experience in teaching, research, and institutional leadership across some of India's finest management institutions.

Prof. Goyal earlier served as the Director of IIM Shillong, where he led several academic and institutional initiatives to strengthen research, digital transformation, and industry engagement. He has also held key leadership roles in top-tier b-schools like MDI Gurgaon, IMT Ghaziabad. Internationally, he was a Visiting Professor at Aarhus University, Denmark, for nearly a decade.

A prolific scholar, Prof. Goyal has supervised 16 Ph.D. scholars, published over 65 research papers in reputed peer-reviewed and indexed journals, and presented extensively at international conferences. He has authored and edited widely used textbooks on Management Information Systems, Enterprise Resource Planning, and IT Project Management. He has also been the editor and reviewer for several prestigious national and international journals including the International Journal of Information Management.

Prof. Goyal has played an active role in policy, governance, and academic advisory bodies, contributing to the UGC, AICTE, and DoPT committees, and serving on Boards of Governors, Academic Councils, and Advisory Boards of several universities, IIMs, and other organizations. His academic excellence has been recognized with numerous awards, including AIMA-KK Nohria award and Best B-School award.

Prof. Goyal earned MBA and Ph.D. in Management Information Systems. He has also undergone advanced training at IIM Ahmedabad, IIM Calcutta, IIT Bombay, and Harvard Business School, Boston.